HACKED OFF

BY ZAC CRAIN

IN EARLY FEBRUARY, IT WAS REVEALED THAT A HACKER NAMED GUCCIFER HAD ACCESSED THE PRIVATE EMAIL accounts of several Bush family members, including, most notably, George W. Bush. Even more notably, one of the hacked emails contained a photograph of a self-portrait Bush had painted. It depicted the 43rd president in the bathtub. Intrigued, I reached out to Guccifer through an IRC room we both frequent (my handle is HowieFromTheFallGuy74) to ask if he would provide me with more. Maybe there was an email containing an in-progress sketch of Bush as Vin Diesel's character from the Fast and Furious movies. Who knows? Guccifer wouldn't give me the emails, but he did send this screenshot of Bush's Gmail account from late last year.

The screenshot shows a Gmail inbox with the following visible emails:
