

You're disappointed you won't get to see Willie Nelson, but move on with your life. You donate $100 of the $500 you would have spent on Willie Nelson tickets to a worthy nonprofit helping impoverished people in your community. Spending time with your family over the holidays, you reflect on what's truly important in life. Filled with love and goodwill toward all, you start 2017 ready to do great things. On January 2, you win free tickets to see Willie Nelson after calling in to your favorite radio show. You go to the concert on January 3, and it is great. Nelson invites you backstage after the show, and tells you he is proud of you. We are all proud of you.