IN THE DISTRICT COURT

DALLAS COUNTY, TEXAS

116TH JUDICIAL DISTRICT

FINAL JUDGMENT

On February 22, 2016, the Court entered orders (the “Orders”) granting in part and denying in part motions for summary judgment filed by Defendants D Magazine Partners, L.P. d/b/a D Magazine (“D Magazine”) and Dallas Symphony Association, Inc. a/k/a Dallas Symphony Orchestra (the “DSA”). In the Orders, the Court granted a take-nothing judgment on Plaintiff Jose Reyes’ (“Reyes”) claims against D Magazine for intentional infliction of emotional distress, defamation per se, and tortious interference with prospective business relationships and on his claims against the DSA for intentional infliction of emotional distress, defamation, defamation per se, negligence, and tortious interference with prospective business relationships.

Both D Magazine and the DSA filed interlocutory appeals regarding the denied portions of their summary judgment motions, which resulted in an opinion and judgment by the Texas Supreme Court, entered March 8, 2019. The Texas Supreme Court held that D Magazine and the DSA were entitled to summary judgment on all of Reyes’ claims. Accordingly, the Texas Supreme Court remanded the case to this Court for rendition of judgment.

IT IS THEREFORE ORDERED by the Court that Reyes shall take nothing against D Magazine on all his claims, including the claims for defamation per quod, negligence, gross negligence, and conspiracy to defame finally resolved by the Texas Supreme Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED by the Court that Reyes shall take nothing against the DSA on all his claims, including the claims for tortious interference with employment, conspiracy to tortiously interfere with his employment, and conspiracy to defame finally resolved by the Texas Supreme Court.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED by the Court that D Magazine and the DSA have and recover from Reyes costs incurred in this Court, the Dallas Court of Appeals, and the Texas Supreme Court.

All writs and processes for the enforcement and collection of this judgment or the costs of court may issue as necessary.

All relief requested in this case and not expressly granted is denied. This judgment finally disposes of all parties and claims, and the rulings on claims not finally resolved by the Texas Supreme Court are appealable.

SIGNED THIS 2nd DAY OF May, 2019.
