

PLAY THIS DALLAS-THEMED M.A.S.H.

It's time for a game of Mansion, Apartment, Shack, House.

HOW TO PLAY: Grab a friend and a piece of paper. Draw a spiral on the paper until your friend says, "stop!" Count the number of lines in the spiral. Then count down through the categories. If, say, you had five points, then count through M, A, S, and H, until you land on Erykah Badu under potential spouses. Cross out her name (rough break, we know). Then keep repeating this, until you end up with one result left per category. Voila! Your life is all planned out.
